Values cannot be rounded off and are fixed by the universities in question. Minimum averages were established based on the results of previous years and the chance of success of master's merit scholarship applicants. In the case of a disparity between the values presented in this list and the A- equivalent established by your university, the data provided by the university will prevail.

- Grades out of 10: applicant must have an average of 8.00 or more.
- Grades out of 100: applicant must have an average of 80.00 or more.
- Grades out of 20: applicant must have an average of 13.0 or more.
